

Report on NSS Special Camp

NSS UNIT-I & UNIT-II

(Adopted Village Manakadajhola)

Women's College Rayagada

2018-19

Dt. 23.12.18-29.12.18

"Service to Mankind is Service to God"

The Special camp for NSS Unit-I and Unit-II was organized for seven days. The camp activities are designed with specific focus on community service through students. The main theme of the special camp was "Swacchha Bharat and Sramadana". With this backdrop the special camp was scheduled from Dt. 23.12.18-29.12.18. In total 50 numbers of student NSS Volunteers participated in the said camp. Manakadajhola was taken as adopted village for camp by NSS unit-I and NSS unit-II. The objective of holding the camp in the village is to create awareness among the villagers about cleanliness, hygiene, sanitation and making alcohol free village.

The Special camp was inaugurated by Smt Sushama Dash, Principal, Women's College, Rayagada, Dr D.K. Mohanty, Social Activist, Rayagada, Dr Reba Patro, Administrative Bursar and Dr Archana Pattanaik, Ex-Programme Officer, Women's College Rayagada. The Lighting of the lamp was followed with NSS Song by NSS Volunteers. Smt Susama Dash, Principal, Women's College addressed the student volunteer and shared his four years of experience on NSS Camp. Dr. D. K. Mohanty, Chief guest, addressed the students volunteers on their responsibilities for the community, Dr Archana Pattanaik, the Guest of Honour put little more light on the importance of NSS for students and the role of NSS volunteers for creating awareness among students and community service. Dr Reba Patro also shared her views and inspired the volunteers. Dr Sarita Mishra, Programme Officer NSS, UNIT-II introduced all the guests and briefly presented the objectives of Special Camp activity details to be undertaken during the camp. Smt Ch Kirti ex-volunteer and socialist of Rayagada oriented the students about their responsibility in the camp period. Smt Kaitha Maa the village head of Manakadajhola also encouraged the students for this activity. The inaugural meeting was ended with vote of thanks by Smt Pratima Panda, Programme officer, Unit-I. The camp activity was started with an auspicious beginning.

Lighting the Lamp during Special Camp by Smt. Sushama Dash, Dr. D.K. Mohanty, Dr. Reba Patno, Dr. Archana Pattanaik.

The day one dt 23.12.18 of the special camp was started with regular activity of the camp followed with lighting of the camp. Then student volunteers arrived at the camp at 6.00 a.m and then engaged with village cleaning. Then the morning prayer and exercise was done by the student volunteers. The orientation class on NSS was taken by Dr Archana Pattanaik, EX -PO. NSS Unit-I and CH Kirti, Ex-Volunteer. After the orientation class volunteers had their breakfast. Then all the volunteers were sent in a group to village households to interact with the villagers a for a rapport building. After returning from the village students were given their lunch followed with 30 mints rest. The afternoon session was handled by Dr Sarita Mishra, Lecturer in Home Science. She had interacted with the villagers on nutrient content of locally available vegetables and personal hygiene. Dr Archana Pattanaik guided the students about their responsibilities and also advised them to become a socially responsible person. The volunteers were given evening snacks and also taken rest for 30 minutes. Then the students have prepared themselves for cultural evening and demonstrate a drama on community health problems. Then programme officers interacted with the villagers regarding the different village issues and chalked out the plan for the next days camp activity. The first day camp activity was ended by 9 .00 pm with dinner.

Student volunteers are engaged in village cleaning activity at Mankadajhola during the special camp.

The second day dt 24.12.18 of the special camp was also started with village cleaning and morning prayer and Yoga. After the breakfast student volunteers were given "Self Defense Training "by Mrs. Rasmita Mohanty, Master Trainer, Rayagada. The volunteers were sent for door to door counseling to the villagers. The first session was ended with lunch break. Two numbers of resource persons were invited to interact with the student volunteers and villagers. In the second day the afternoon session was handled by Dr Narendra Mishra, known Social Activist motivated the students for social service and role of education for community development ,The second session was continued till

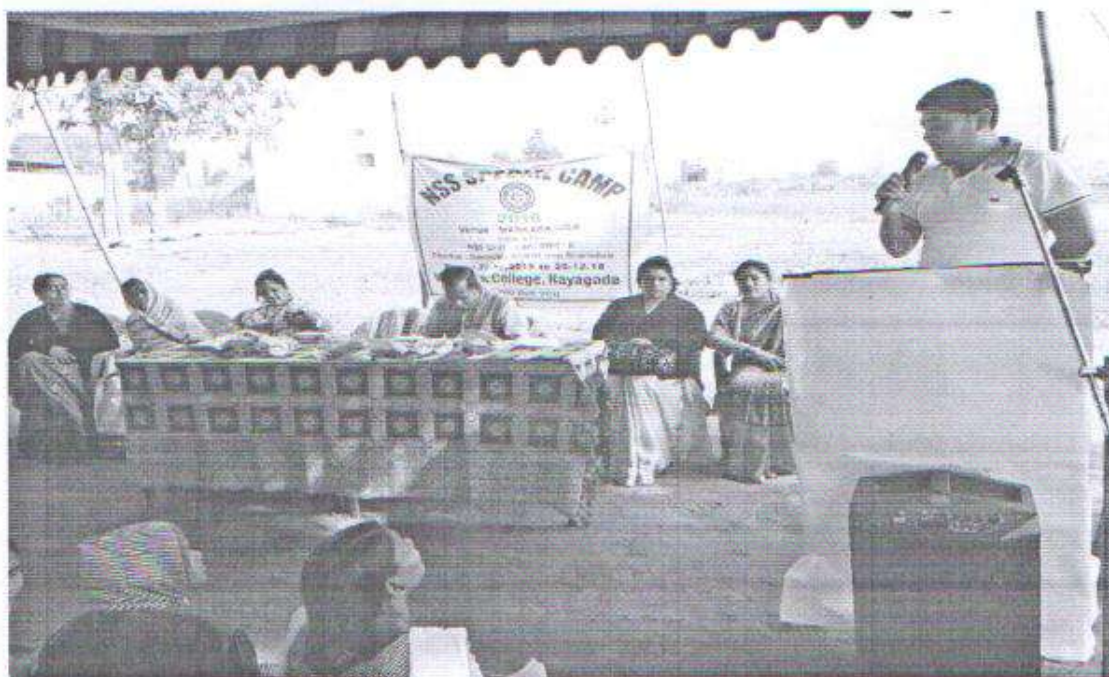

Self defence training by Smt. Rasmita Mohanty , Literacy orientation by Dr. Narendra Mishra

4.30 p.m by Dr L.N Sahu, the First Aid trainer. He addressed the student volunteers and trained on how to rescue from immediate problems and also given tips on how to control " Hypoglycemia" and save the patient. At the end Dr Sarita Mishra, highly educative, interactive and activity oriented. Then the students have prepared themselves for cultural evening and demonstrate a drama on community health problems. Then programme officers interacted with the villagers regarding the different village issues and chalked out the plan for the next days camp activity. The first day camp activity was ended by 9 .00 pm with dinner.

The third day dt 25.12.18 of the special camp is also started with village cleaning, morning prayer, exercise and orientation to students on discipline. Then the students were interacted with the villagers. After the village cleaning student volunteers were given breakfast. The students were distributed into teams send for survey work and three students were engaged for house numbering work. The first session was taken by Mr Rabindra Pathakhondal , RTI , Co-ordinator and Sri Pramod Panda, Socialist Rayagada. They gave information regarding RTI Act and mode of agriculture for different cultivation and soil conservation. The other resource person of the day was Smt. Subhra Panda, Advocate Rayagada, interacted with the student volunteers and village regarding different issues related to domestic violence and its solution. The first session was ended with a moral message and literacy training by Dr. Narendra Mishra and Sri U.N.Panda followed by lunch break.

Mr Rabindra Pathakhondal , RTI , Co-ordinator addressing the volunteers during special camp.

The second session was resumed at 3p.m., Smt. Jyotshna Padhee counselor of domestic violence and Mrs. Saloni Acharya, Advocate interacted with the volunteers regarding laws and regulations to protect the family and society. Dr. Archana Pattanaik, Ex.P.O. NSS advised the volunteers regarding behavior change, discipline, and service to mankind. The whole session was smoothly conducted by NSS P.O. Pratima Panda and Dr. Sarita Mishra on the eve of Christmas Day, the NSS volunteers moved to nearby Church to spread the motto "All religion is one and God is one", the theme of communal Harmony. At the end of the day the volunteers came back to the adopted village Mankadajhola at 5p.m. After that the interaction with the villagers was held at the meeting spot and programme for the next day was chalked-out. The meeting was followed by cultural programme based on communal harmony. Then the volunteers and the programme officers had their dinner at 9 p.m. After that the camp was wind-up.

An orientation on Communal Harmony was given by Dr. Archana Pattnaik

The fourth day dt 26.12.18 of the special camp started with morning prayer, exercise, village cleaning and monitoring the village children's cleanliness. The first session was started by the resource person Dr. Archana Pattanaik Ex. P.O. NSS. The competitions were organized for NSS volunteers. The Debate competition was conducted by Dr. Archana Pattanaik on the theme "What I can do for Swatch Bharat Abhiyan". After that the Volunteers had gone for lunch break. In the afternoon session a quiz competition was conducted by Smt. Pratima Panda, NSS P.O, Unit -I. The volunteers were given evening snacks followed with tea break for 30 minutes. The student volunteers presented a skit on domestic violence and the cultural evening followed with dinner at 9.00 pm.

Quiz competition and debate competition was held during the special camp

The fifth day dt 27.12.18 of the special camp was started at 6 a.m. with morning prayer, exercise and orientation on personality development. Then the student volunteers engaged for village cleaning. Student volunteers have also interacted with the villagers' healthy life and benefits of cleaning. The first session was addressed by Dr. Archana Pattanaik and interacted with the villagers and volunteers. Smt Meenakshi Dash, ICDS, Supervisor was invited as the resource person and she gave a talk on Immunization, Mal-nutrition and health problems among the children and balanced diet. The first session was followed with launch break. The student volunteers had gone for rest for 45 minutes and the second session was resumed by 3.00p.m. The second session was full of activities and entertainment. The competitions were organized by NSS volunteers among the village children and villagers. Dance, Song, and musical chair competitions were organized very smoothly. After that a community interaction was held between the villagers and programme officers. The village leader Kaitha Maa and Ulasha Naik of the village shared their views on village problems regarding construction of the road was the major issue. Then the students have gone for tea break at 5.30 pm and returned back to camp site at 6.30 p.m. The cultural evening was started and the student volunteers were presented a small drama on village problems which was ended with a nice dinner at 9.00 p.m.

The Sixth day of Special Camp was started on dt.28.12.18 with, morning prayer, Physical exercise, village cleaning. Then student volunteers had gone for breakfast. After that a talk on "Bad effect of alcoholism" was addressed by Dr Archana Pattanaik . She had shared her views regarding use of drugs in rural society. The first session was full of motivation which was followed with lunch break at 1.30 p.m. The second session was resumed by 2.30 p.m. The session was full of resource persons. Smt Sushama Dash, Principal Womens college ,Rayagada, Dr D. K Mohanty, Socialist, Rayagada, Sri Salva Raju, Former Principal, Rayagada Autonomous College, Rayagada were invited and addressed on , human values, role of morality , importance of literacy etc. All the resource persons interacted with the student volunteers and villagers. The student volunteers had gone for tea break and snacks and resumed to camp site by 6.30p.m. The cultural evening was started and ended with a nice dinner at 9.00 p.m. The programme officers of Unit-I and Unit-II were conducted a meeting and chalked out the programmes for the last day camp activity.

Prize distribution ceremony during valedictory function of NSS special camp by Chief Guest on the dies Dr. Niranjan Buxi Patra , Dr. D.K. Mohanty and Smt. Sushama Dash.

The seventh day of Special camp at Mankadajhola village was started as per the schedule. The last day of the camp was organized smoothly. The closing of the camp was followed with formal meeting. Dr N. Baxipatro, Vice Chairman , Municipality was invited as a Chief guest , The formal meeting was started by lighting of the lamp by dignitaries Dr D. K Mohanty , Guest of honour, Smt Sushama Dash, President of the meeting and programme officers. The meeting was started with NSS song by programme officers of Unit-I and Unit-II and volunteers. Dr Sarita Mishra , Programme officers, NSS unit-II presented the seven days camp report. Ms Archana Naik and Ms Bharati Naik, Volunteer of NSS shared her experience during the camp period. Smt Kaitha Maa and Smt Ulasha Maa shared their views regarding village problems. The meeting was followed by prize distribution to volunteers , village children and villagers who won different positions in song, Musical chair and essay competitions and certificate distribution to NSS volunteers .A special felicitation was given for outstanding contribution in social field to different dignitaries as Dr Archana Pattanaik, EX. PO. NSS, Lt Reeta rani Mishra, Dr D.K Mohanty, and Smt. Sushama Dash for their outstanding contribution in social field. Prizes for different competitions were given to village children, villages, and NSS Volunteers. The camp was ended with campfire. The Cultural programmes like group song, dance and expressed his concern for villager, guest, and happiness towards to all work done during the camp activities of the whole day.

Service to community

Service to nation

NSS P.O Unit -I

Pratima Panda

N.S.S. Programme Officer

Women's College, RAYAGADA

NSS P.O Unit - II

Sarita Mishra

N.S.S. Programme Officer

Women's College, RAYAGADA

19.3.19
PRINCIPAL
Women's College
Rayagada